

FACILITIES FOR CYCLISTS IN MIDLOTHIAN

Updated April 2017

Food, drink, attractions, services and help for cyclists in Midlothian

The businesses and organisations listed below welcome visitors and customers who use bicycles. We now show the Saturday and Sunday opening times for cafes, restaurants, and take-aways, so if you want a bite before you start your ride, or a rest stop, you can see who's open when. We're also adding "Bike parking" where we know about it.

Cafés, restaurants and take-aways: if you're counting on a specific place being open, phone ahead to check opening days and times; groups please consider placing orders in advance.

Where can I cycle without traffic?

We have traffic-free cycle paths between Dalkeith (Edinburgh College) and Penicuik (Valleyfield Road) via Bonnyrigg (8 miles), and between Roslin (Manse Road) and Lasswade Road at its junction with Gilmerton Dykes Road, Edinburgh, via Straiton Pond and Loanhead (3.5 miles). The Roslin to Lasswade Road cycle route now connects with the cycle path network in the City of Edinburgh via the Gilmerton-Rosslyn Chapel Way (www.edinburgh.gov.uk “Explore Edinburgh...”)

National Cycle Routes 1 and 196 pass through Midlothian, connecting with East Lothian, Edinburgh, the Scottish Borders and the rest of the UK. For details of the National Cycle Network, visit www.sustrans.org.uk. For a downloadable map and other information and advice about cycling in Midlothian, visit www.midlothian.gov.uk/cycling. For a cycle route planner, visit www.cyclestreets.net. For a large-scale paper map of cycle routes in Midlothian, published by Spokes, ask at bike shops or visit www.spokes.org.uk. For a free map and leaflet of the North Esk Cycle Loop (14-mile circular cycle ride) visit www.visitmidlothian.org.uk/cycling/.
