

MIDLOTHIAN INTEGRATION JOINT BOARD (IJB)

Publication Scheme

Introduction

The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (the Act) requires Scottish public authorities to produce and maintain a publication scheme. Authorities are under a legal obligation to:

- publish the classes of information that they make routinely available
- tell the public how to access the information and whether information is available free of charge or on payment.

Midlothian Integration Joint Board (IJB) has adopted the Model Publication Scheme produced and approved by the Scottish Information Commissioner on 31 May 2017.

Guide to Information

The purpose of this guide to information is to:

- allow the public to see what information is available (and what is not available) in relation to each class
- state what charges may be applied
- explain how to find the information easily
- provide contact details for enquiries and to get help with access to the information
- explain how to request information that has not been published.

The guidance is split into the following six sections:

- availability and formats;
- exempt information
- copyright and re-use;
- charges
- contact details; and
- the classes of information

Availability and formats

The information published through this scheme is, wherever possible, be available on the authority's website. We can offer alternative arrangements for people who do not wish to, or who cannot, access the information either online or by inspection at the authority's premises. We can, for example, arrange to send out information in paper copy on request (although there may be a charge for this).

Exempt information

If the information described by the classes below cannot be published and is exempt under Scotland's freedom of information laws (for example sensitive personal data or a trade secret), we may withhold the information or provide a redacted version for publication and explain why we have done so.

Copyright and re-use

Where the IJB holds copyright in its published information, the information may be copied or reproduced without formal permission provided that:

- it is copied or reproduced accurately;
- it is not used in a misleading context; and
- the source of the material is identified.

Where the IJB does not hold the copyright in information it publishes, this will be made clear.

Unless otherwise specified in the classes of information, all information contained within our publication scheme is available from us free of charge where it can be downloaded by you from our website.

We reserve the right to impose charges for providing information in paper copy, by e-mail or on computer disc. Charges will reflect the costs to the IJB of retrieval, reproduction and postage, as set out below.

The IJB has adopted the UK government's approach to Open Data Standards in that data should be published to a minimum of 3 stars in the Government's 5 star rating scheme \(Opens in a new window\).

This means our data is easily accessible and available to re-use as required under the Open Government Licence \(Opens in a new window\). We are working hard to ensure all our published datasets meet this standard.
