3 x residents.

This estate walkabout took place on Wednesday 16th April at 12pm. The walkabout had been advertised on the Midlothian council social media platforms and community radio. These gave an email address and telephone number to allow residents to raise any issues prior to the estate walkabout. Anyone unable to attend could also report any issues on this number. We met outside the Co-Op on Newton Church Road then onto Edmonstone Road, Edmonstone Terrace then to Edmonstone Drive then finished at Smithy Green Avenue. 3 x Members of public came along and discussed some of their issues with staff.

Newton Church Road:

The estate walkabout started outside the Co Op. Resident came out and advised that the parking along Newton Church Road is becoming very difficult due to some resident using all the parking spaces. They advised that double yellow lines have now been put down and feels that this is still not deterring drivers from parking there.

Action:

Regarding parking spaces on Newton Church Road, housing officer enquiring into this. Email sent to roads department regarding double yellow lines restrictions.

Edmonstone Road:

Walked through Edmonstone Road, no issues.

Edmonstone Terrace:

Walked through to Edmonstone Terrace, no issues

Edmonstone Drive:

Walked up to Edmonstone Drive no issues. Walked through the path we had been advised that this area has been getting used for fly tipping.

Action:

The area will be monitored by the waste team.

Smithy Green Avenue:

Walked into Smithy Green Avenue, no issues to report.
