Use of the BBQ areas:

You must:

- Show your booking confirmation to any Midlothian Council member of staff on request.
- Leave the BBQ area promptly at the end of your booking period.
- Leave the BBQ area tidy at the end of your booking period. All rubbish and recycling must either be removed from site or placed in the bins provided.
- Not host more guests than the number of people specified above.
- Be courteous to other park users during your visit. No loud or amplified music is permitted.
- Not permit alcohol or illegal substances to be consumed.

Use of the BBQ grill / firepit

Use of the BBQ grill / firepit is entirely at your own risk.

Please be aware that:

- The BBQ cooking grill may have come into contact with allergens.
- Charcoal is not supplied. Dried firewood can be taken from adjacent woodland. No live trees should be cut / used.
- Site staff may require the BBQ / fire pit to be extinguished if conditions are considered dangerous and/or other terms and conditions of use have been breached.
- Cooking must be confined to the BBQ grill provided. Additional portable or disposable BBQs should not be used.
- You must extinguish coals / fire before leaving.

Termination and Cancellation:

Midlothian Council reserves the right to:

- Refuse any booking request.
- Terminate any booking where safety concerns or a breach of booking conditions are identified.
- Cancel a booking if Vogie County Park is closed due to adverse weather conditions or industrial action. Any fee paid will be refunded.
